😊 SPAG...spelling, punctuation and grammar:

Which One?

• Decide whether each sentence below is a statement, exclamation, command or question.

1. A sentence that asks something, and uses a question mark
2. A sentence that tells somebody to do something, and can use a full stop or an exclamation mark depending on how bossy it is
3. A sentence that gives information and ends with a full stop
4. A phrase or sentence that shares a feeling, or is said loudly.

Perfect Punctuation

• There are six mistakes in the use of capital letters and full stops in this paragraph. Rewrite the paragraph and correct the mistakes.

penguins are a type of bird that cannot fly Most penguins spend half their time hunting for food in the water: penguins are well adapted to life In the ocean they can see better underwater than on land.

Powerful adjective

• Over use of an adjective can mean a sentence becomes boring...replace the underlined adjectives with more interesting ones to build some powerful expanded noun phrases.

The good boy and his good dog went to the good beach so the boy could sail his good wooden boat.

The salty sea monster lay silently in the salty seaweed, at the bottom of the salty sea so he couldn't be seen.

Perfect Punctuation

• Rewrite these sentences with the correct punctuation:

the hamster was startled by the loud noise nobody expected the cake to taste of cabbage

ADJECTIVE
An adjective is a word that describes a noun or pronoun.
