

The Little White Owl by Tracey Corderoy

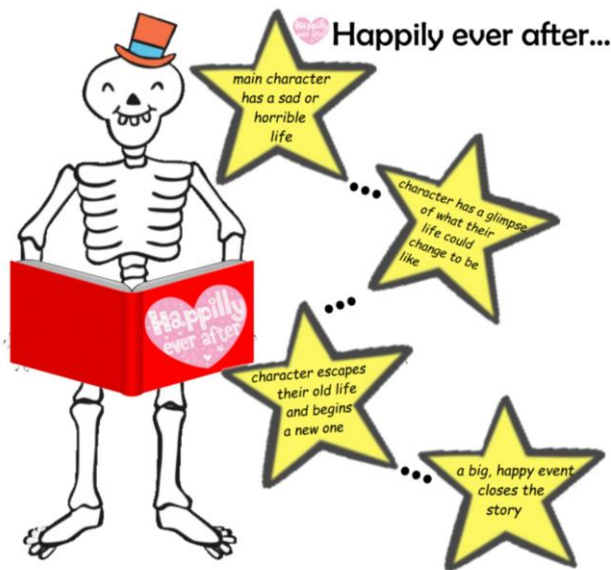

*Share the story – if you are a confident reader then give it a go independently, or share the book with an adult (you can take it in turns to read, or your adult can read it to you). Otherwise you can listen to the story here:

*Think about the story...look at our story skeletons...which story skeleton does this story match with? Can you explain your choice? Use the text to help you.

*Here are some questions to talk about. Remember to look back and reread the text so you can use it to help you answer the questions.

1. At the beginning of the story the Little White Owl is all alone – how do you think he ended up like this?
2. How do you think the Little White Owl felt as he set out on his journey?
3. The Little White owl sees 'jewels', so he swoops down...but were they really jewels? What were they?
4. How was the Little White Owl feeling when he realised the jewels were really other owls?
5. What do you think he hoped would happen now he had found the lovely owls?
6. Why were the other owls unkind to the Little White Owl?
7. What made the other owls start to smile? Why do you think this was a surprise for the owls?
8. Why did the other owls want to go back to the Little White Owl's home?
9. What did Tracey Corderoy want you to learn and think about from this story?

* Apply your pencil drawing and observation drawing skills, and have a go at creating a drawing of an Owl. Here are a few different Owls which live in the UK, to select from:

Barn Owl

Tawny Owl

Short Eared Owl

Long Eared Owl
