

Task 1

Using junk/construction toys/playdough/arts and crafts, can you create something, anything you like, and then discuss with someone at home what you have created.

Compare results. What have you created? How did you create it? Can you find something in nature that has been created? (A leaf, acorn, feather, shell, fruit, stone, etc.) How was it created?

- Challenge/Discussion: What does the word creation mean? Can you research what creation is and come up with a definition?

Task 2

Watch the Christian story of creation: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=teu7BCZTgDs>

After watching the video, can you talk about what Christians believe about creation?

- Get creative! - Can you make a collage or a picture showing something from the Christian story of creation?

Task 3:

Why do you think Christians tell the story you watched about creation?

Have a look at the statements below and say whether you agree or disagree.

. Because it is interesting.

. Because it shows that God made the world.

. Because it is true.

. Because they don't know how the world was created.

. Because it is a very old and special story.

. Because it is not true.

Task 4:

Watch the Hindu creation story: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=whEVO4RfnSE>

Have a look at the pictures below, can you sequence them and put them in the right order? Maybe use the pictures to re-tell the story.

- Challenge: Write a sentence for each picture.

Task 5:

Why do you think Christians tell the story you watched about creation?
