<https://spellingframe.co.uk/spelling-rule/133/20-ue>

Look for words with the ue and the ew that say 'oo' and 'yoo' sounds when reading. Listen put for the sounds when people are talking.

Write the words on cards and then cut them up into each letter. Turn the letter cards face down. Choose a word from the list this week to spell. Turn over the letter cards one by one and spell the word. If the letter that you turn over is not in the word you are spelling, turn it back over. Move on to the next word once you have completed the one you are on.

You could play this as a race with another person, who can spell the most words the quickest?

Another way to play is with another person, taking it in turns to turn a card over and only keeping it if it is in the word you are spelling. Who has the most words once all the cards have been turned over?
